SPOTLIGHT ON EAST ASHEVILLE - PENNY CUP COFFEE

by Kathryn Liss

I am so pleased to have this new establishment in our neighborhood! A real coffeehouse. I don't actually drink coffee myself, but there is plenty else to enjoy at this new establishment.

PENNYCUP COFFEE CO.

On my visit the other day, I enjoyed a freshly made cup of peppermint tea ingredients stored in glass and a bagel. The bagels come from Brueggers and were fresh and good. They use them to make sandwiches, too. You can get a smoked salmon, turkey, hummus or veggie sandwich. They make their own specialty cream cheeses.

They have other baked goods, some which are gluten free. Learn more here...

ASHEVILLE TIME BANK

We started the Asheville TimeBank in 2015, joining the Ourworld network of TimeBanks, and have grown to over 120 members currently. Learn more here...

NATURE'S CORNER - WILD TURKEYS

by Jessie Wilder

I was racking my brain to come up with a topic for this column and was distracted by a loud gobbling outside. I got up to close the window and looked down into the face of a wild turkey. He asked me to write about him and I said okay. Walking the roads and trails of Haw Creek I often hear the gobble of wild turkeys echoing through the trees. Small flocks of these beautiful birds can be seen scratching
